

CLARE COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE

‘HOPE’

CHAPEL SERVICES

MICHAELMAS TERM 2020

COVID-19

Much has changed since we last offered services in the Chapel, but we are delighted to re-open our doors to Chapel worship and music once again. During this time of the COVID-19 pandemic, new steps have been put in place to ensure safety for all:

- Attendance at Chapel services this term will initially be open to members of College only. We hope to welcome back members of public at a later point in term, and details of this will be announced on our website and social media pages.
- Congregational attendance at services by members of College or the public will be strictly limited to adhere with social distancing. To secure a place seats must be booked in advance via the Chapel website. Tickets will be available to book for the week ahead. You must specify how many people in your household/bubble will be attending (up to a maximum of six) and supply contact details for Test and Trace when doing so.
- In line with the Government's COVID-19 Test and Trace programme, contact details for all visitors and service attendees will be taken and held on file for a period of 21 days. Your details will only be used, if necessary, in conjunction with the Test and Trace programme and Clare College will not process this data for any other purpose.
- If you are feeling unwell or showing symptoms of Covid-19 please stay at home. If you have attended Chapel and develop symptoms within 14 days you must notify us immediately.
- Households and bubbles attending services must remain socially distanced at all times in Chapel, especially if there is a queue on arrival or departure. It is a legal requirement that face coverings are worn at all times by all those attending a place of worship. A hand cleansing station is available on entry and exit to the Chapel.
- Orders of service will be placed on seats and you are asked to take these away with you and dispose of them yourself.
- For now, there is no congregational singing at this time. Toilet facilities will not be available to visitors, and there are no drinks or dining after services this term.
- All Chapel services will be streamed live on the Choir's YouTube channel. Links will be circulated through the Choir's and Chapel's websites and social media pages.
- Services on 5 October (Matriculation Service), 2 November (All Souls' Requiem), and 18 November (Compline) will not be open to the public. This is to accommodate the full Choir at these services, which will be streamed live.
- There will be four Advent Carol Services this year, to offer more opportunity for visitors at these popular services. Those wishing to apply for tickets should contact the Head of the Chapel Office by Wednesday 21 October (email nr399@cam.ac.uk), giving full contact details and specifying which service they wish to attend. During this time we ask visitors to be limited to two tickets per household for these services. All those who have been allocated tickets will be notified by mid-November.

SUNDAY MORNINGS: EXPLORING CHRISTIANITY

A chance to spend half an hour each week reading through Luke's Gospel together, and discussing what strikes us. This is ideal for those who would like to learn more about Christianity, or who are simply keen to refresh their memory. All members of College, and all views, are warmly welcome. We will meet via Zoom, 9.30 a.m.–10 a.m. each Sunday morning, and an invite link will be given in the weekly Chapel emails to the College.

READING GROUP: C. S. LEWIS' 'THE GREAT DIVORCE'

On Tuesday evenings at 7.30 p.m., there will be a short informal and friendly reading group, led by our Decani Scholar, Hannah Grady. This term we will be exploring C. S. Lewis' classic work, The Great Divorce, an imaginative and thought-provoking story about a bus ride from hell to heaven. We will aim to look at a chapter or two each week, and the group meets for the first time on Tuesday 13 October, via Zoom. An invite link will be given in the Dean's weekly email to the College, and all are warmly welcome. You can also get in touch with Hannah (hng24@cam.ac.uk) for more information, and to receive a free copy of the book in your pigeonhole.

A COMMEMORATION OF HUGH LATIMER

At Evensong on Thursday 15 October, we commemorate the life and martyrdom of Clare alumnus Hugh Latimer. Latimer was a Fellow of Clare, later Bishop of Worcester, and was burnt at the stake in Oxford in October 1555.

ALL SOULS' DAY SERVICE

At this special choral service for All Souls' Day, live-streamed from Chapel at 9 p.m. on Monday 2 November, we remember, and name before God, those we love who have died over the past year. This year we shall also name, with thanksgiving, those who have endured illness or suffering, but have recovered their health. More details will be shared with Clare members nearer the time of the service.

SERVICE FOR REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

The College's annual Service of Remembrance for all those who have lost their lives in war and conflict takes place this year in Memorial Court, on Sunday 8 November at 10.45 a.m. The service will include the laying of the College's wreath, as well as choral pieces, readings, and hymns. College members are invited to wear gowns, and to gather around the main archway at the front of Memorial Court.

STAFF CAROL SERVICE

All Clare staff are warmly invited to the Staff Carol Service in Chapel on Thursday 3 December at 7 p.m. The service will include traditional festive carols and readings.

COVER IMAGE

The cover image is Hope in the Prison of Despair, by the Pre-Raphaelite painter Evelyn De Morgan (1885–1919). It personifies Hope as the bringer of light and liberation to those who are weighed down or oppressed.

RECITALS

Regrettably, there will be no pre-service Sunday recitals this term. We hope to reintroduce these later in the year.

MUSIC

After one of the longest stretches of silence in the Chapel in recent years, we are delighted to welcome back our Chapel Choir for services this term. Social distancing rules require us to sing most services with smaller forces, socially distanced. This has offered us greater scope for consort music making, services for upper and lower voices, and – occasionally – services with full choir but no congregation. Video cameras have been installed in Chapel in September, allowing us to live stream all services and reach all corners of the globe. This year we have doubled the number of Advent Carol Services to four, to help offer more people the opportunity to join us for these very popular services.

It takes more than a global pandemic to dampen our ambition and enthusiasm. This term we give the world première of four works commissioned for Clare College and Graham Ross by Choir & Organ magazine, with choral works by Seán Doherty (18 October) and Anna Semple (18 November) and organ voluntaries by Pia Rose Scattergood (25 October) and Emily Hazrati (15 November). Alongside familiar pieces of the canon we continue our exploration of lesser-performed repertoire, including some wonderful works by Black, Asian and ethnically diverse composers, and with male and female composers represented in every service.

On Sunday 25 October we are joined by some of Clare's undergraduate string players for music by Beethoven and Brahms, and on Wednesday 18 October by violinist and Clare alumna Naomi Warburton for candlelit Compline. On All Souls' Day (Monday 2 November) we give a special performance of Duruflé's Requiem behind closed doors but live-streamed, joined by former Clare Choir mezzo-soprano Kate Symonds-Joy, and Clare alumni baritone Dominic Sedgwick and cellist Leo Popplewell. On the morning of Remembrance Sunday (8 November) we hold a special outdoors service at Memorial Court, Clare College.

Our latest album of works by Benjamin Britten, including A Ceremony of Carols, is released worldwide on the Harmonia Mundi label in October, and is available for sale via the Choir website or Old Court Porters' Lodge.

Full details of all events are available from the Chapel Office, or at www.clarecollegechoir.com.
