MICHAELMAS TERM 2023

SERMONS AND ADDRESSES

'The Precious Pearl'

|-----------------------------------|--|
| 8 October | The Dean Finding God in Cambridge |
| 15 October | Professor Jeremy Begbie Duke Divinity School, North Carolina Finding God in Music |
| 22 October | The Rt Rev'd Saju Muthalaly Bishop of Loughborough Finding God in Bewilderment |
| 29 October | Dr Chloë Reddaway King's College, London Finding God in Art |
| 5 November | Dr David Randall Consultant, The Royal London Hospital Finding God in Medicine |
| 12 November (10.45 a.m.) | Loretta Minghella OBE Master of Clare Finding God in Conflict |
| 19 November | The Rev'd Dr Philip Stewart St Botolph's Church, Cambridge Finding God in Suffering |
| 26 November (11.00 a.m.) | Professor Douglas Hedley Fellow of Clare; Faculty of Divinity Finding God in Philosophy |

In her Preamble to the Statutes, Lady Clare expressed her desire that the members of her College should 'discover and acquire the precious pearl of learning'. Our Foundress was alluding to a parable told by Jesus, in which the kingdom of heaven is compared to a merchant who, having found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it (Matthew XIII: 45-46). The parable points to the all-surpassing value of the kingdom of heaven, and the great joy that comes in finding God. Our sermons and addresses at Sunday Evensong services this term will help us to reflect on this theme, by considering how we might discover the truth and beauty of God in the complexities of our academic studies, and amid a world marred by suffering and conflict.

Professor Jeremy Begbie is the Thomas A. Langford Distinguished Professor at Duke Divinity School, North Carolina, and his research focuses on the relationship between Christianity and the Arts. A professional musician, Professor Begbie has a particular interest in the interplay between music and theology, and is an Affiliated Lecturer at the Faculty of Music in Cambridge. Saju Muthalaly grew up in South India and came to faith as a teenager. Following ordination in 2008, he served in parishes in the dioceses of Carlisle and Rochester before being consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough in 2022. Saju is the youngest bishop in the Church of England, and a keen cricketer.

Dr Chloë Reddaway is a Research Fellow at King's College, London, where her work focusses on visual theology and Christian art, with a particular interest in the potential of historic works of art for contemporary theology. Her publications include Strangeness and Recognition: Mystery and Familiarity in Renaissance Paintings of Christ (2019). Dr David Randall read Medicine at Cambridge, after which he worked as a doctor in various hospitals in east London, whilst also completing a PhD at Queen Mary. He is currently a Consultant in Renal Medicine at the Royal London Hospital. Loretta Minghella became the 46th Master of Clare in 2021, and is herself an alumna of the College, graduating in 1984. From 2010–17, Loretta served as the Chief Executive of Christian Aid, where she oversaw responses to natural disasters, refugee crises and hunger and famine emergencies, and led long-term development work and advocacy on major issues affecting the world's poorest people. In 2017, she was appointed as the first female First Church Estates Commissioner, overseeing the Church of England's £10bn investment portfolio. The Rev'd Dr Philip Stewart is a General Practitioner in Comberton, and also ministers at St Botolph's Church in Cambridge, where he is the Assistant Curate. Professor Douglas Hedley has been a Fellow of Clare since 1996, and is the Professor of the Philosophy of Religion at the Faculty of Divinity. In addition to his many research interests and publications, Professor Hedley is the Director of the Cambridge Centre for the Study of Platonism.

HOLY COMMUNION

A simple and peaceful morning service every Sunday morning at 10 a.m., including a short sermon, and lasting about half an hour. Followed by coffee and tea, toast and pastries, in E3. At breakfast on 8 October, there will also be a chance to hear about the variety of churches in Cambridge. On 29 October, we are joined by the Chapel congregation of Trinity Hall, followed by a free cooked breakfast back in their Hall. On 12 November, Holy Communion is replaced by the special morning Service for Remembrance Sunday in Chapel at 10.45 a.m, and on 26 November Holy Communion is replaced by the Choral Eucharist for Christ the King at 11 a.m. Our sermons at Holy Communion in Michaelmas Term continue our exploration of Luke's Gospel.

8 October: A subversive Messiah (Luke V: 27–32)

15 October: New wine (Luke V: 33–39)

22 October: Lord of the Sabbath (Luke VI: 1–16)

29 October: Blessings and woes (Luke VI: 17–26)

5 November: Divine love (Luke VI: 27–36)

19 November: Do not judge (Luke VI: 37–45)

CHORAL SERVICES

Sunday evening services are followed by drinks in the Ante-Chapel, and supper in the Great Hall, to which all who attend Chapel are warmly invited. Our special service for Remembrance Sunday at 10.45 a.m. on Sunday 12 November, and our Choral Eucharist for Christ the King at 11 a.m. on Sunday 26 November, will be followed by lunch in the Great Hall.

| Thursday 30 November | Second Advent Carol Service, 6.00 p.m. |

RECITALS

Each Sunday during full term there is a recital in Chapel at 5.25 p.m. before Evensong. Visitors are welcome, and admission is free. The recital is a preparation for the worship to follow, and those present are invited to reflect and meditate silently during the musical offering. There are no recitals on 12 November (Remembrance Sunday) or 26 November (Christ the King).

MUSIC

Musical highlights this Term include a liturgical performance of Herbert Howells' Requiem for All Souls' Day (2 November), Robert Ramsey's How are the mighty fallen as part of our special service for Remembrance Sunday (13 November), Schubert's Mass No. 2 in G with strings for our Choral Eucharist for Christ the King (26 November), and the first performance of a new setting of Responses by Clare alumna Caitlin Obee (early October). Alongside established repertoire the Choir continues to explore lesser-known works, including those by Aquilera de Heredia, Zoë Martlew, Hjálmar H. Ragnarsson, Joanna Marsh, and Iain Farrington.

The Choir is joined by the Choir of Clare Hall College (9 November), and by undergraduate Clare string players for Christ the King (26 November). In September the Choir sings Choral Evensong at St Andrew's, Stapleford (29 September) and on Tuesday 24 October gives a concert performance of Claudio Monteverdi's Vespers of 1610 as the inaugural Great Hall Concert following the recently-completed refurbishment.

The two popular Clare Advent Carol Services this year take place on Tuesday 28 November and Thursday 30 November (admission by ticket only). The Choir sings Christmas Carols for the College Staff on Wednesday 29 November at 5.00 p.m. in the Riverside Café.

During the December vacation, the Choir tours across the USA and the Netherlands, and performs in London's St John's, Smith Square on Monday 18 December. Full details are available from the Chapel Office, or at www.clarecollegechoir.com.

FRESHERS' WEEK SERVICES & EVENTS

The Freshers' Welcome Service is on Sunday 1 October at 9.30 a.m. and is open to all new Clare students. It includes readings, hymns and some short talks from current students, and is followed by a free cooked breakfast. At breakfast after the first Holy Communion of term (Sunday 8 October, 10.00 a.m.) there will be a chance for freshers to hear about the range of churches in Cambridge, and later that Sunday, from 5.00 p.m. onwards, the Dean is hosting pre-Evensong drinks for the graduate students in E3.

A COMMEMORATION OF HUGH LATIMER

At Choral Evensong on Thursday 12 October, we commemorate the life and martyrdom of Clare alumnus Hugh Latimer. Latimer was a Fellow of Clare, later Bishop of Worcester, and was burnt at the stake in Oxford in October 1555.

CHAPEL CONVERSATIONS: FINDING GOD IN CLARE

On Thursday 19 October, Clare students are invited to an informal evening conversation in E3 at 9 p.m., over wine. We're delighted to welcome back Clare alumnus Niv Lobo, who read English at the College from 2009 to 2012, and is now a priest in the Church of England. He'll be reflecting on his time as a student at Clare, and how his faith informed this. After a short talk, there will be plenty of time for questions and conversation, and we will finish at 10.00 p.m. All warmly welcome.

MONTEVERDI: VESPERS

Following the completion of its refurbishment, the inaugural Great Hall Concert takes place on Tuesday 24 October with a performance of Claudio Monteverdi's spectacular Vespers of 1610 conducted by Graham Ross. The Choir will be joined by Clare alumni tenor Nicholas Mulroy, violinist Margaret Faultless, and lutenist Elizabeth Kenny, the period instrumentalists of the English Cornett and Sackbut Ensemble, and undergraduate string players from the University. Tickets are available from the ADC Box Office.

ALL SOULS' DAY SERVICE

We hold a special choral service on Thursday 2 November at 6.00 p.m. for All Souls' Day. The Choir sings Herbert Howells' Requiem, as we remember, and name before God, those we love who have died over the past year. More details will be shared with Clare members nearer the service.

DEAN'S PORT

Later on the evening of Thursday 2 November, Clare undergraduate and graduate students are warmly invited to chase away the winter chill, and end their day with a glass of port or mug of hot chocolate in E3, 9.00–10.00 p.m.

CLARE HALL EVENSONG AND RECEPTION

Choral Evensong on Thursday 9 November will be sung with the Choir of Clare Hall, Cambridge. We are delighted to be joined at this service by students from Clare Hall, who are also invited to a special reception in the Antechapel after the service.

SERVICE FOR REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

The College's annual Service of Remembrance for all those who have lost their lives in war and conflict takes place this year on Sunday 12 November at 10.45 a.m. The service will include observing the national two minute silence at 11 a.m., as well as choral pieces, readings and hymns. The address will be given by the Master, on the theme 'Finding God in Conflict'. College members are invited to wear gowns, and the service is followed by lunch in Hall. In addition, there will also be an act of Remembrance at the Memorial Court archway, to mark the moment of Armistice, on Saturday 11 November at 11 a.m.

ADVENT CAROL SERVICES

There is very high demand for the free tickets for both Advent Carol Services. Those wishing to apply for tickets should contact the Head of the Chapel Office by Wednesday 18 October (email gjb62@cam.ac.uk). All those who have been allocated tickets will be notified by mid-November.

STAFF CAROLS

All Clare staff and Fellows are warmly invited to informal Christmas carols and refreshments with the Dean, Director of Music and the Choir on Wednesday 29 November at 5.00 p.m in the River Café.

O MAGNUM MYSTERIUM

During December the Choir presents its new Christmas programme, O Magnum Mysterium, in two UK concerts in Hay-on-Wye (6 December) and at London's St John's, Smith Square (18 December). Full details are available at the back of this Termcard.

BAPTISM AND CONFIRMATION

The Dean will be running an informal enquirers' group during the term, for Clare undergraduates and graduates who would like to talk through questions about faith or belief, or who are exploring Baptism or Confirmation. Please contact him if you would like to join this group. The Dean would also be delighted to hear from any Clare students who are interested in reading in Chapel services, or in joining the Chapel Wardens team.

COLLECTIONS

This term's charity is Jimmy's Cambridge, which works to provide help for the homeless in Cambridge. For over twenty years, Jimmy's has worked with the local community, volunteers and partner agencies to provide round-the-clock emergency accommodation and supported housing for those who would otherwise be homeless or vulnerable. You can find out more at www.jimmyscambridge.org.uk, and there will be a chance to donate each week during term at our Sunday evening services.

COVER IMAGE

CHORAL SERVICES RESUME ON THURSDAY 18 JANUARY 2024 AT 6.15 P.M.

CHAPEL PERSONNEL

THE DEAN, Mark Smith, is responsible for the life of the Chapel and has a general pastoral role throughout College. He is always happy to talk with all members of the College community about any matters of concern or interest, and can usually be found in E3. In cases of genuine emergency, he can be contacted 24 hours a day through the Porters' Lodge.

THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC, Graham Ross, is responsible for all music in Chapel and College.

THE DECANI SCHOLAR, Hannah Fytche, assists the Dean in the life of the Chapel. Hannah is a Clare graduate student, studying for a PhD in Theology in the Faculty of Divinity.

THE HEAD OF THE CHAPEL OFFICE, Gabrielle Bell, handles all routine Chapel matters.

THE CHOIR ADMINISTRATOR, Helen Southernwood, is responsible for all the Choir's external engagements.

THE CHAPEL WARDENS look after the running of Chapel services and events. They meet for lunch on Tuesdays in E3 to plan the coming week. Please speak to the Dean or Decani Scholar if you would like to be involved.

THE CHAPEL READERS speak at Chapel services: any members of College who would like to offer to read in Chapel should speak to the Dean or one of the Chapel Wardens.

THE CHRISTIAN UNION REPRESENTATIVE is Dan Goody (dg643).

THE FISHER HOUSE REPRESENTATIVE is Krzysztof Herka (kh650).

THE CHAPLAINS TO THOSE OF OTHER FAITHS are Ben Baruch and Atira Baruch (ben@mychaplaincy.co.uk and atira@mychaplaincy.co.uk), Jewish Chaplains to the University; and Dr Rachael Harris (rmh1001), Buddhist Chaplain to the University. Details about the CU Islamic Society can be found at www.isoc.co.uk.

Visit www.clare.cam.ac.uk/Chapel-and-Choir for information on all Chapel services, to which visitors are always welcome.
